Homeward Bound Cat Adoptions Waives Fees for Long-Waiting Cats During August Adoption Event

LAS VEGAS, NV — Some cats have been waiting for loving homes for more than three months. Homeward Bound Cat Adoptions is hoping to change that for Clear the Shelters, a special adoption promotion running August 12 through August 26.

During the two-week event, adoption fees will be completely waived for all cats who have been at Homeward Bound for more than three months. In addition, adoption fees for all other adult cats will be 50% off. Kittens, as they are available, are not discounted. Standard adoption policies apply.

"Some cats simply get overlooked," said Vanessa Porter, Executive Director for Homeward Bound Cat Adoptions. "They watch other cats get adopted while they continue waiting. We want to give those long-waiting cats an extra opportunity to be seen and, hopefully, finally chosen."

Homeward Bound's adoption population changes constantly. New kittens and adult cats arrive regularly, while others leave for new homes. That means the cats available during the promotion may change from day to day.

The organization encourages anyone considering adding a cat to their family to visit more than once if they don't find the right match immediately.

"When one cat goes home, it opens the door for another cat who needs us," Porter said. "Every adoption creates another opportunity to save a life."
