Vintage Cats, Classic Charm: Homeward Bound Celebrates Senior Cats with Special Adoption Promotion

Las Vegas, NV – Some things just get better with age: vintage records, classic cars, well-loved books, and, of course, cats!

Homeward Bound Cat Adoptions is celebrating its most seasoned residents with a special Vintage Cats: Old, But Classic adoption promotion in honor of Adopt a Senior Cat Month, giving adopters an extra reason to fall for a senior feline.

Currently, nine senior cats, ranging in age from 10 to 15, are waiting to be discovered, with additional senior cats arriving soon. And while they may have a few more miles on the odometer, these cats still have plenty of personality, affection, and companionship to offer.

Thanks to the generosity of the Gene Haas Foundation, adopters will receive $25 off the adoption fee of any cat age 10 or older. That's not all! Homeward Bound also offers a special senior citizen discount for adopters ages 65 and older: $20 off the adoption fee of any adult cat (age 1+) or a FREE adoption of a senior cat!

Among the distinguished lineup are a few familiar faces with plenty of character:

- Jelly Bean, 11: This sweet gray tabby is a people-loving girl who enjoys attention, playtime, window watching, and lounging near her favorite humans. She's even known to give her people a thorough kitty bath!
- Trouble, 11: Don't let the name fool you! This handsome Snowshoe mix has traded his mischievous kitten days for a much calmer lifestyle. He's an easygoing companion who enjoys being near his people and gets along with other cats.
- Bear, 11: A certified lovebug, Bear the Siamese is all about cuddles, lap time, and affection. He loves being held once he feels safe and is ready to make someone a very devoted companion.
- Shadow, 10: This handsome gray gentleman is looking for a peaceful place to land after losing his beloved person. He enjoys a good conversation and would love a comfortable home where he can be himself.

These cats have stories, personalities, and years of love behind them. Some are playful, some are snuggly, some are independent, and some simply want a cozy place to spend their afternoons. What they all have in common is that they deserve to be loved and appreciated for exactly who they are.

Senior cats can make wonderful companions. Their personalities are often well established, many have outgrown the energetic kitten stage, and they have so much to offer the right home. Adopting an older cat also means giving a deserving animal the chance to enjoy the comfort, security, and companionship of a loving home during their golden years.

So, if you've been thinking about adding a feline friend to your life, consider skipping the latest model and choosing a classic. You might just discover that the best things really do come with a little extra vintage charm!

Homeward Bound is open daily from 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. at 2675 East Flamingo Road in Las Vegas. Stop by, meet the cats, and find out which classic is the perfect match for you. For more information, visit homewardboundcats.org.

About Homeward Bound Cat Adoptions: A nonprofit organization dedicated to cats and people. If cats cannot stay with their families or in their neighborhoods, Homeward Bound prioritizes resources on cats most at risk, ensuring the highest level of care and providing a modern, free-roaming adoption center to minimize stress, serve the individual needs of each cat, and set up both cats and adopters for success.
